19TH JULY, 2013

(a) For all cities and their urban areas:

		Increase	Multiplying factor
(a)	For (road) width up to 9.0 meters	10%	0.10
(b)	For (Road) width between 9.0 meter and 18.0 meters	25%	0.25
(c)	For (Road) width between 18.0 meter and 30.0 meters	75%	0.75
(d)	For (Road) width between 30.0 meter and 40.0 meters	100%	1.00
(e)	For (Road) width between 40.0 meter and 60.0 meters	150%	1.50
(f)	For (Road) width greater than 60.0 meters	200%	2.00
(g)	Without access to any road	0%	0.00

(b) Rural areas (for sr. no. 5 of para 3.1)

		Increase	Multiplying factor
(a)	National Highway	50%	0.50
(b)	State Highway	40%	0.40
(c)	For (Road) width equal to or greater than 18.0 meter	20%	0.20
(d)	For (Road) width less than 18.0 meter or no access to public road	0%	0.00

(3.3) For areas under Town Planning Scheme or proposed Town Planning Scheme:

Following multiplying factors under factor of Town Planning Schemes under Gujarat Town Composition and Urban Development Ordinance shall have to be considered.

For land within Town Planning Scheme area:

		Increase	Multiplying Factor
(a)	For period after intention to prepare draft town planning scheme and before TPS submitted to the Government	100%	1.00
(b)	Draft scheme approved (by Government) and roads opened (to traffic)	200%	2.00

However, in case where sale of land are from only respective developed / approved town planning schemes areas after development has taken place while valuation or in cases where process of preparation of town planning schemes have not started, no increase shall have to be given.

(3.4) Sale of Agricultural / non-agricultural (land):

Sale (deeds) of same type (purpose) of land shall be considered for purpose of valuation of land (Agricultural / non-agricultural). If in some special circumstances sale (deeds of land) of same purpose are not available, after preparing comparison statement in traditional manner 300% increase i.e. 3.00 multiplying factor will be used for sr. no 1 to 4 (in table under point 3.1) and 200% increase i.e. 2.00 multiplying factor shall have to be used while considering (sale of) agricultural (land) for valuation of non-agricultural (land). One third value of comparable sale value of non-agricultural land shall have to be considered while deciding value of agricultural land.

(3.5) Where some special project affecting land under consideration is taking shape:

If some special important project is taking shape in the city and land under valuation is benefited / affected by the same, increase as follows shall have to be given.

Stage of Project	Increase	Multiplying factor
At planning stage	25%	0.25
Implementation has started and 25% progress (is achieved)	50%	0.50
More than 50% progress	75%	0.75
100% completed	100%	1.00

(3.6) Increase for Policy or Scheme declaration by Government like enhanced F.S.I. / height or relaxation in problems related to land etc. for taking up planned development of some specified area: 50%

(3.7) Man made factors:

For land under consideration affected by manmade factors like canal, high tension electric line (more than 66 KVA), ribbon development rules, railway line, airport etc., decrease corresponding to estimated land portion left out from use and shall have to be noted point wise in remarks column of the statement.

Decrease as per above point 3.7 shall not be considered on average (value) of sales but it shall be considered after final calculations i.e. from the final calculation considering all increases (in value of land) as per all factors.

(4) Specific natural factors:

Discretionary increase or decrease may be made considering beneficial or adverse effects of specific factors (other than those mentioned above) like salt land of sea shore, mudflats land, mountainous, uneven land, barren land of desert etc. affecting land under consideration. For this purpose point wise and note shall be made giving reasons in proceedings.

(5) State level valuation committee shall have full powers to interpret effects of all above mentioned factors on land under consideration and in matters of changing / modifying (valuation) percentage.

(6) While selecting comparable sale (of land), sales permitted under 63(gh) shall be noted as guidance sales only but not (considered) in calculations.

(7) Above procedure shall be in force till Annual Statement of Rates (Jantri) published and implemented in the state on 01/04/2008 is not (revised and) re-published.

(8) This circular is issued with concurrence (of Government) on Revenue Department file no. JMN/3907/C.T./5/A, IWDMS file JMN – 392008 – 306475 – A. This circular shall have to be implemented with immediate effect and previous circular no. Research/Circular/2008/8094 dated 04/11/2008 shall be considered cancelled (rescinded).

(9) Previous valuations done by State Level Valuation Committee in vicinity of land under consideration shall have to be considered while making valuation by new procedure.

Superintendent of Stamp Duty, Government Of Gujarat, Gandhinagar. Letter Dated 25-03-2011 Sr No:
Stamp- Technical-41-2011/118

Foreword

1. The act of the state of Gujarat, - 1958 phase - 32 (h) is formed by the state government for effective implementation of the state's land / real Estate and property in the Market Value and the Guide line for determining the rates of Jantri are determined time to time. At present Jantri i.e. Annual Statements Of Rates (A.S.R 2006) in in force since 1/4/2008.
2. With the implementation of A.S.R 2006 several representations form people and the Institutions were received regarding anomalies in in Jantri like areas left out for deciding rates, type of land (Class of Land) the appeals are also filed with the Gujarat High court. Looking to the changing scenario with respect to economic growth of the sate due to over progress and the growth in the area of industries and rural development it has been decided in principle to update/ upgrade Jantri rates. And also to take fluctuation in rate of the Property/ Land in to consideration so as to publish revised Jantri rates.
3. A survey was carried out in January 2009 and in July 2009 then changing land prices were observed and it was decided to get the prevailing prices. With that same view to decide rates during 31-1-2011 to 10-2-2011 survey work undertaken.
4. As per the survey conducted in July 2009, the survey method followed by the rural area measuring 1Km X 1 K.M. was divided in to 2, 61,200 parts. (Grid) and these parts were subdivided into three Sub Grid having total 7, 83,602 spited parts and the rates of Sub grid were availed. For this survey the readily available Maps from BISAG were used.
5. Current rates of the different categories of land were called for which included irrigable, Non irrigable, Nonagricultural, land with Mineral contains keeping in view, the location types of such land like General (Ordinary Location) lands adjoining to NH/SH and MDR/ODR accordingly rates were taken for such location for Agricultural, Non Agricultural residential as well as Industrial areas, and land with Mineral contains but Non Agricultural Land.
6. Same way the Urban areas in the Corporation limits were divided in to 9638 Value Zones and the Nagarpalikas' areas were divided in to 12240 Value Zones to avail the rates and this way the action was taken further. In Corporation areas rates for the land adjoining to roads with 18 meter or less width and in Nagarpalika areas land adjoin to main roads and roads connecting to main roads were considered. The survey was linked with the rates of Developed land (Open Plots) residential Flats/ Apartments, Offices Industries etc taking in to view about different categories of land such as irrigable, Non irrigable, Nonagricultural, Industrial areas.

7. After conducting District wise and Taluka wise the Survey within stipulated time limit for different categories of land as mentioned above. The rates of Jantri were decided after careful scrutinizing the Data entries available on the basis of Village wise Sub Gird and the Valuation Zone wise for Cities as well as Nagarpalikas'. The proposal with the guideline for the implementation for the Jantri Rates has been prepared and is submitted to the Superintendent of Stamp Duty for the approval.
